

Urethane Hose

Made of a combination of both plastic and rubber, Polyurethane hose is naturally flexible and offers abrasion and tear resistance, high tensile and elongation values, and low compression set. 85A Polyurethane is naturally flexible and exhibits virtually unlimited flexural abilities. Many colors and sizes available.

| | |
|------------------------------|--|
| Flow | 0 to 105 psig at 100°F (max. 120°F) |
| Notes | In normal applications hose clamps are not required when used with Clippard hose barb fittings |
| Product Line Brochure | Mechanical Valves |

